UNIVERSITY

The door to a new
Newark School has opened
UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL
(formerly School Within A School)
A Special School for Special Students

The City
Is
School

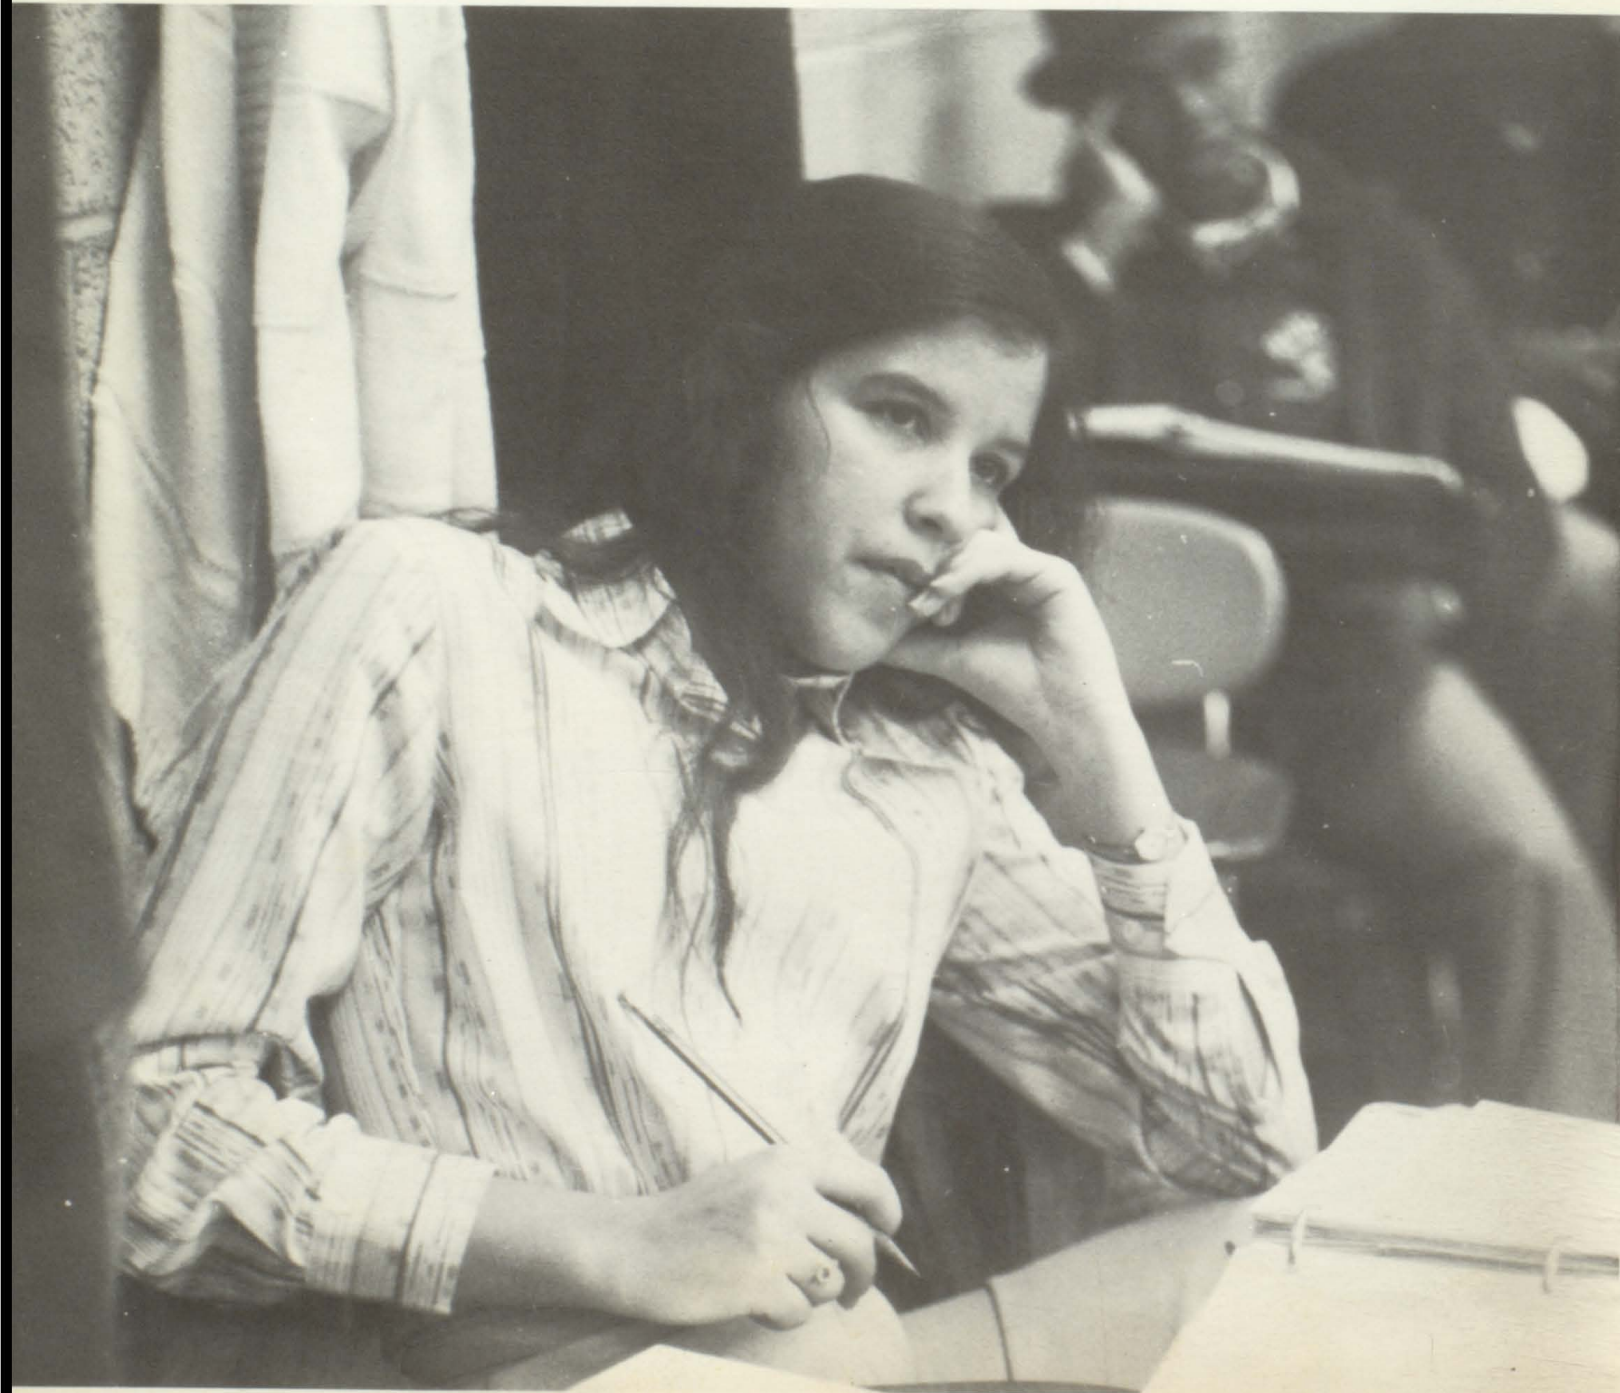

Coming from all parts of Newark, our academically gifted students pursue a rigorous college preparatory program.

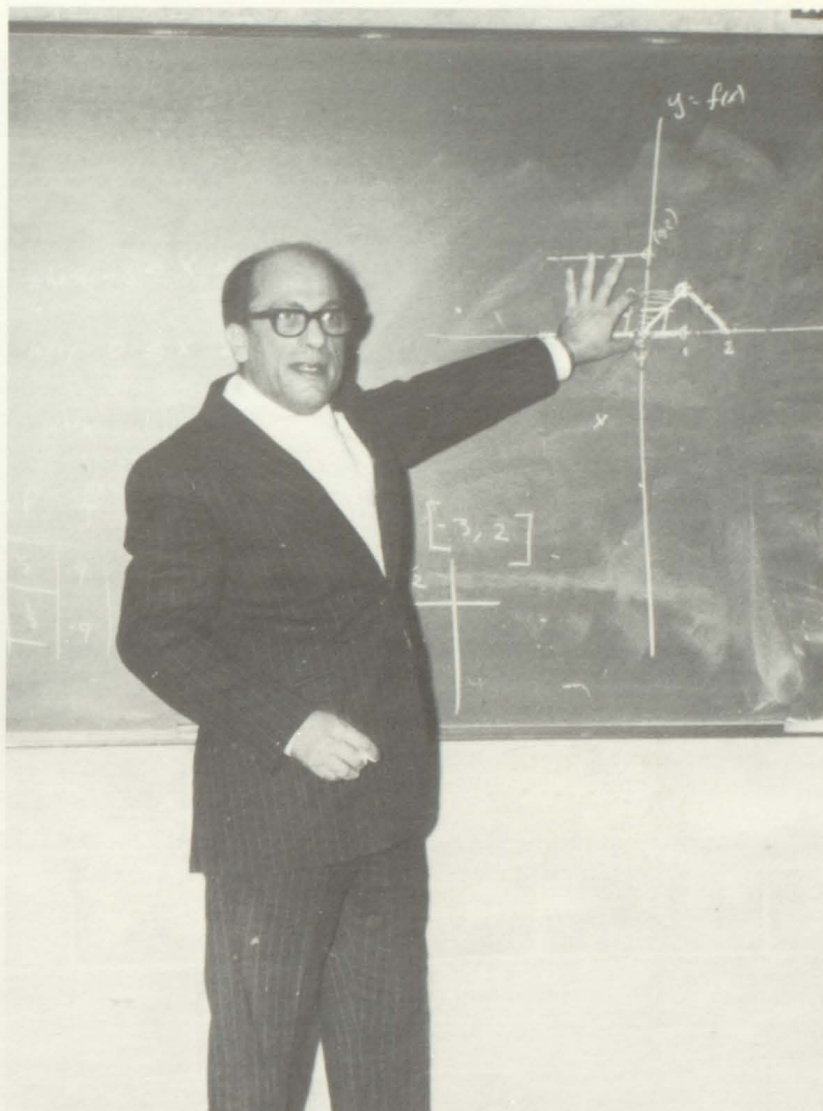

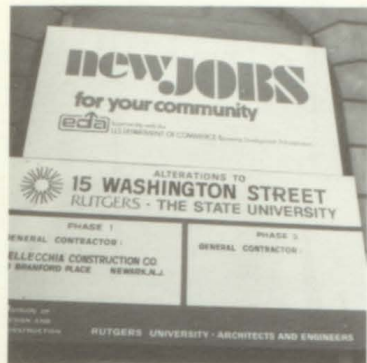

Those who meet the competitive admissions requirements are with us eleven months a year.

The stringent and diversified curriculum - four years each of humanities, mathematics, science, and foreign language, plus electives - not only challenges, but prepares students for admission to, and success in college.

CONSTANT

CHALLENGE

Team

Concept

Because we are convinced that knowledge is unified, we avoid excessive departmentalization and compartmentalization. Each of the four grades has a team of teachers, one from each subject area, coordinated by a team leader. Each team meets daily, formulating schedules, conferring with parents and students, and tending to necessary paperwork. But the team concept is far more than this: it affords the staff real opportunity for professional growth — for example, how curriculum can best be coordinated and presented. The team concept conveys to the students the school's real sense of unity and purpose about their education.

ACADEMIC

FAMILY

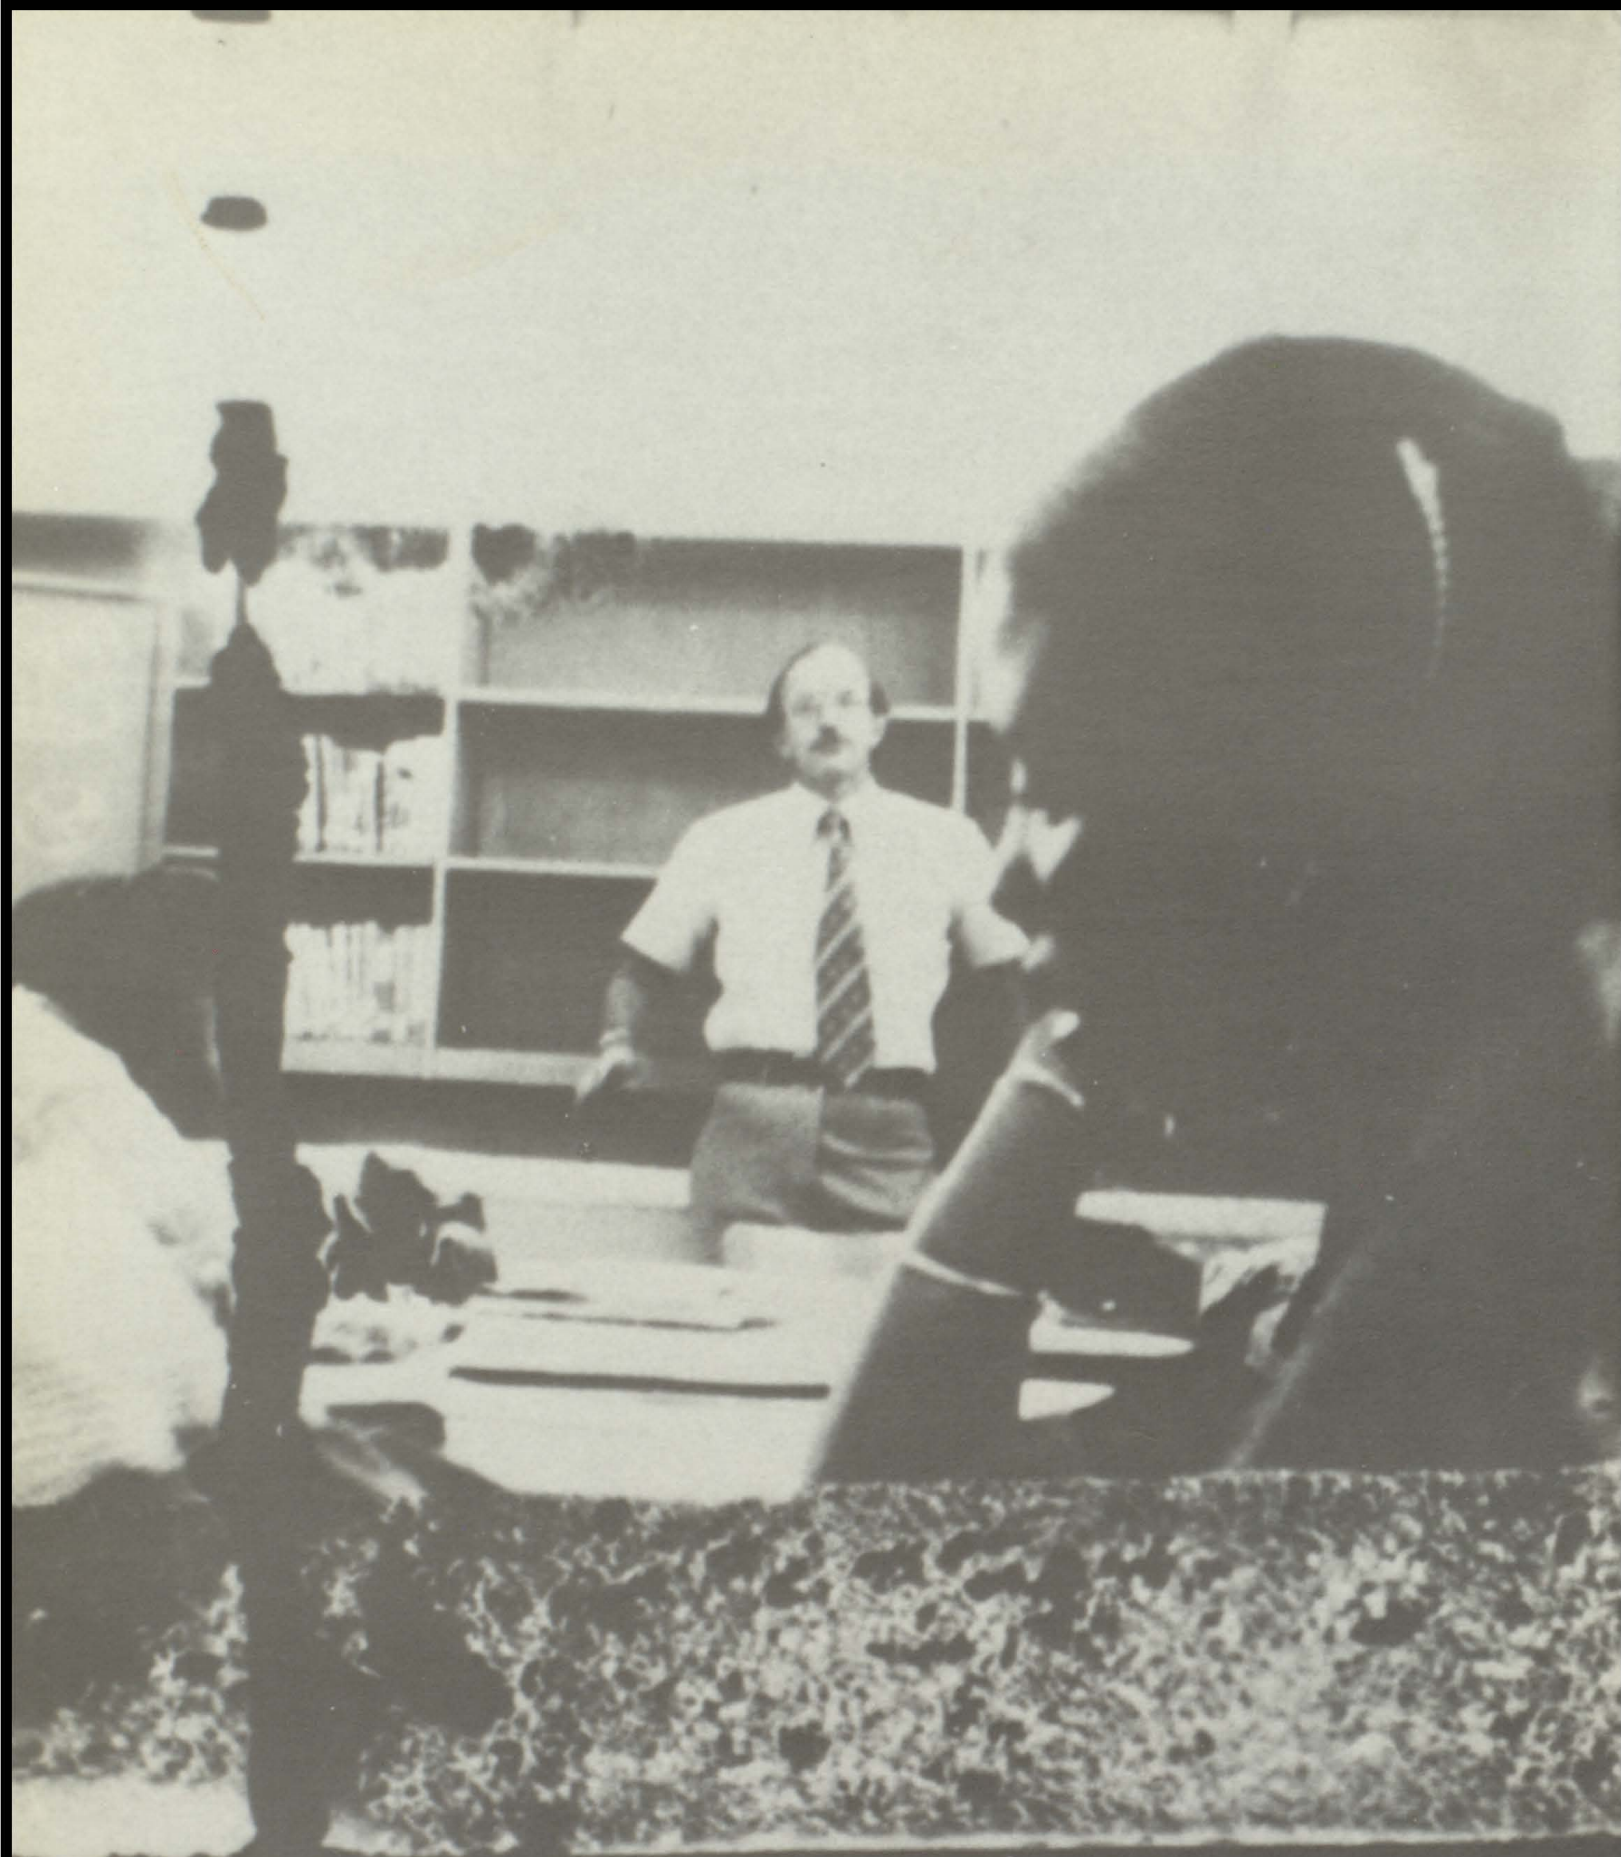

Within our school of only 400 students and staff there is an air of informality and intimacy, which grows out of this limited size. Students are guided, nurtured, and taught according to their individual unique talents and personalities. We all know each other, and we all know that students learn best when treated holistically. The monthly parent-teacher-student-organization meetings are well attended and parents are free to visit with us concerning their child's progress.

WE DEDICATE OUR BUILDING

University High School completed its transformation from a program, SWAS, to a high school, when we dedicated it on November 18, 1977.

The ceremony was very ably conducted by Ed Cunningham. Dignitaries included representative of the business, educational, professional, And religious communities.

Al De Rogatis, a vice president of Prudential, and Seymour Spiegel, the founding director of SWAS, were given special commendations. The library and conference rooms were dedicated to them for their unflagging support and determination which helped make University High School a reality.

It was a day to remember, and who could be blamed for becoming emotional when two SWAS alumni, Marvin Comick, Harvard, '77, and Valerie Hazelton, Connecticut Wesleyan, '77, addressed the gathering. Everyone, especially the students and parents, agreed that this auspicious beginning could only mean continued success for University High in the future.

A BUILDING IN TRANSITION

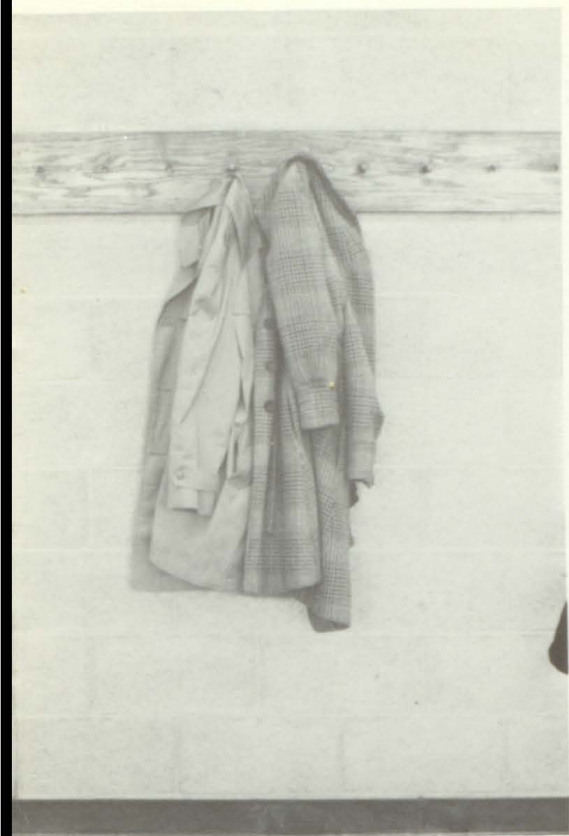

Our building, 240 High Street, was previously the home of NJIT's chemical engineering program. A significant renovation process was necessary to transform it into University High School. In September, 1977, students and staff demonstrated one of our hallmark qualities-flexibility-as we were housed in four separate locations in neighboring institutions. The Newark Public Library for the seniors, Hill Hall at Rutgers for the juniors, NJIT for the sophomores, and the Newark Museum for the freshmen, were our "schools" until "240" was ready.

The renovation process included three phases: one, the creation of 12 classrooms, an office complex, and cafetorium; phase two, completed in March of 1978, the renovation of eight additional classrooms on the second floor; and phase three the anticipated addition of a school-ready third floor, with additional classrooms, labs, and offices.

We dedicated more than a building — we dedicated our ourselves.

The success of University High School can be attributed to the solid dedication, perseverance, and zeal of students, teachers, parents, and supporters. While we are relatively new (born in 1969) we have already established a track record second to none. Some 93% of our graduates have finished, or are still attending college.

Capable students, talented teachers, concerned staff and administration, combined with a family atmosphere help explain our success. Our graduates to to find schools, including Harvard, MIT, and Princeton, stay there, do well, graduate, and pursue valuable and important careers.

Above all, University High students are prepared to face the increasingly complex challenges of life.

SUCCESS

Success demands hard work and sacrifice. Upon completing the 8th grade, students are required to attend school during the month of July. Courses range from English to criminology.

In-coming freshmen, some 200 each year, are screened, consulted, counseled, and evaluated. It is a probationary period for all of them (and for us!). They take arithmetic, composition, introduction to laboratory science, French and Spanish, and geography skills.

New 10th, 11th, and 12th grade programs vary, but the emphasis is on enrichment. We can do much more in July than during the "regular" school year. For example, the course on criminology involves not only student research, but field trips to the municipal and county courts and police headquarters. We also entertain guest speakers, experts in the field.

Many other students pursue their studies in special programs, where they are introduced to college and the world of work. Over the years, UHS students have participated in programs including: Prudential Actuarial Program, Stevens Institute of Technology (STEP), Minority Introduction to Engineering at Carnegie Mellon and Lehigh Universities, Glassboro State Music program, Encampment for Citizenship, and many others.

The summer, by consensus, is "the best month of the year."

SCHOOL

Dedication

We, the graduating class of 1978, wish to pay tribute to Mr. Seymour Spiegel, founder and former Director of School Within A School. School Within A School was the forerunner of what is now University High School. Mr. Spiegel, as early as 1968, saw a need for a school for highly motivated students. It was his effort and foresight which enabled such a school to come into being. His tenacity of purpose and his devotion to the idea that SWAS should be housed in a building of its own are the reasons that today we enjoy such a building, and that building is being improved constantly in order to house better and more efficient facilities. We, and all graduating classes of University High, owe a debt of gratitude to Mr. Spiegel. His vision and imagination are the primary cause of the existence of University High School.

Mr. Spiegel is no longer involved in public education. He has sought a new career in private enterprise. We deeply feel that it is the business world's gain and education's loss. He was always there when he was needed; he was always willing to listen to both faculty and students; he was always open minded and circumspect in his thinking; he was always the one to whom we could turn when problems arose or some difficulty needed arbitration.

It is with these thoughts in mind that we wish to dedicate University High School's first yearbook. It is with these thoughts in mind that we wish to thank Mr. Spiegel for his efforts in our behalf. Few men give as Mr. Spiegel gave — of his time, of his imagination, of his kindness, of himself, night and day.

So, Mr. Spiegel, please accept this dedication as our meager thanks for all the sweat and worry and disappointment you endured in order that we might reap the benefits of your efforts. You are, and shall be greatly missed.

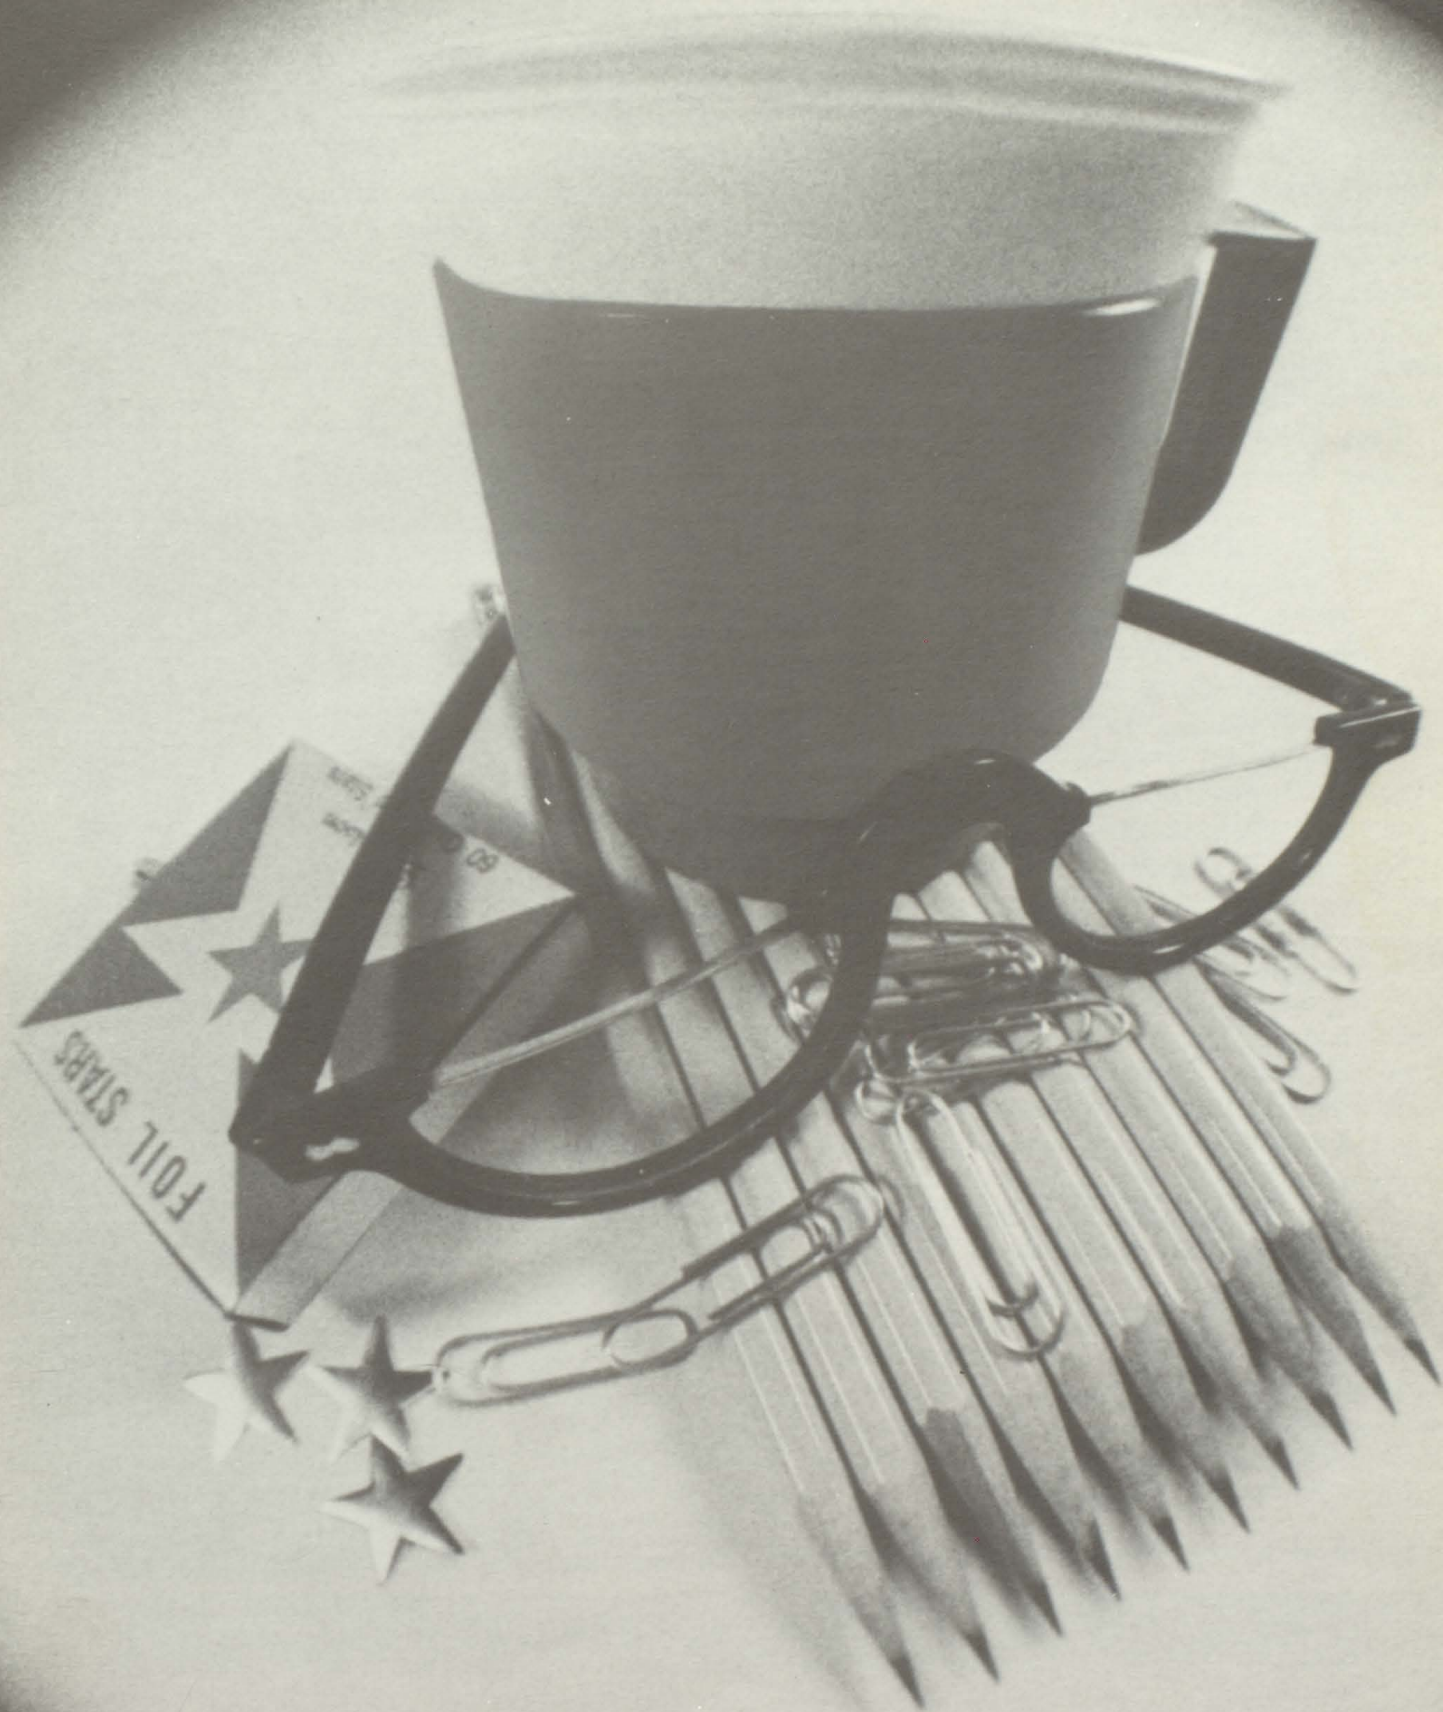

Mr. Seymour Spiegel

FACULTY

Directors Message

It has always been the dream of the administration, faculty, parents and students of School Within A School that one day we would have our very first independent graduating class. That day is now, and you are to be our very first graduates from University High formerly School Within A School. The Class of 1978 will always be special to us as we develop and grow as a prototype of an urban academic high school.

The academic background which University High provides, will enable you to succeed in your future endeavors both in college and within the larger society. Always remember that anytime you need the advice of the faculty or just a friendly person to discuss your individual goals and objectives with, the entire faculty is at your disposal.

The problems of our cities and their immediate survival will demand creative and innovative ideas. The young people of your generation will have this tremendous responsibility of resolving the problems or lessening their impact on society.

I encourage each and every one of you to continue your active participation in community organizations. The Newark community needs you today more than ever. Our graduates have always made a commitment to obtain expertise and then to return to Newark and provide professional service to the residents as doctors, lawyers, engineers, etc. this is a tradition that I personally hope will continue to characterize the graduates of University High.

On behalf of the administration, faculty and the Parent Teacher Student Organization, I congratulate you on your graduation from high school. I hope that your educational aspirations will continue until your ultimate career goal in life has been achieved.

Mr. Willie J. Young

University High School's first director is Mr. Willie J. Young. For seven years he was the counselor in the SWAS program, taking one year off to serve as head counselor for Malcom X Shabazz High School.

A product of Central High and Montclair State, Mr. Young now resides in East Orange.

In the middle of the many changes of 1977-1978 — the physical renovation of 240 High Street, the transplanting of students, staff, and supplies from Malcolm X, and the coordination of parents, teachers, and students — Mr. Young was always there to see that things ran smoothly.

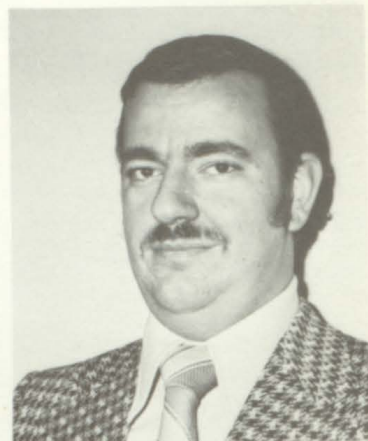

Administration

Mr. Joseph Malanga, our new deputy director, is one of the founders of SWAS-University High School. He chose to pursue his educational career in the city where he was born and raised. After teaching fourth grade for a year at Newton Street School, he taught social science at South Side High School (now Malcolm X Shabazz) for twelve years.

In his transition from teacher to administrator, Mr. Malanga has kept his professional integrity and personal dedication without losing any of the warmth, consideration and congeniality that make him much more than just an administrator. We at University High consider ourselves fortunate to have Mr. Malanga as one of the heads of our "family."

Advisory Board

The Advisory Board has also been an essential component of the University High Program since 1969. Composed of some 25 individuals, including representatives of parents, labor, local business and industry, local colleges and universities, community organizations, and organizations of teachers and school administrators, the Advisory Board serves on many fronts.

In addition to advising on curricular matters, it has given us substantial financial support and scholarships, and money for the purchase and renovation of our building.

Prudential Insurance Company has been very cooperative in developing a mathematics program for our students in the summer. The Newark Public Library has provided its extensive facilities, and those of the Newark Museum over the years, times too innumerable to list. Rutgers and NJIT have been of incalculable value to us - through the High School Scholars Program, the special college-level calculus and physics program, and by providing classrooms in the previous summers, and especially Hill

The Advisory Board

Hall for the Seniors, in the 1977-1978 school year.

Additionally, many foundations have made, often through the good offices of the Advisory Board, significant contributions to the school for which we are deeply appreciative.

P.T.S.O.

ESSENTIAL SUPPORT

Since its inception, and continuing to the present, University High School has been able to exist and to flourish due in large measure to the support of two organizations: The Parents-Teacher-Student Organization, and the Advisory Board.

The P.T.S.O.

Parent involvement has always been an essential ingredient in the UHS philosophy. Without the encouragement from concerned and loving parents, our students would not feel secure enough to face the challenges of growing up, and the demands and pressures of an academic high school.

The parents meet monthly, learn about the program's ups and downs, help in teacher selection, raise funds for student activities, and when necessary, cajole, demand, and demonstrate before the powers that be.

The parents know the value of University High; their commitment is real. Ms. Robbye Lee, current PTSO president, follows a line of able predecessors: Mr. G. Van Horne, Ms. L. Kirby, Ms. Naomi Chambers, Ms. Gladys Ray (2 terms), and Mr. Clarence Wright, (3 terms).

To all of the officers and members, we say "thank you!"

UNDERCLASS

A DAISY

A man once told a story
About a daisy in the midst of a mudhole
When everything around this daisy
Was tattered decayed and cold
'So straight!' he said that daisy stood
With pride and dignity
Until the daisy, not the mudhole
Was all that he could see.
Looking at this daisy
There was something he wanted to know
In the midst of all this debris
How could that daisy grow?
He thought and thought it over
The answer remains unknown
But one thing he certainly realized
It wasn't impossible for it to have grown.
I don't know whether the story is true
But there is something that can be learned
That through work and perserverence
Anything can be earned.

Student Government Organization

The purpose of the S.G.O. is to provide a better learning situation and establish unity among all the members of our school community.

The student senate raises and appropriates funds, communicates with the various homerooms, classes, faculty members, administration and advises the student body on matters of student policy and conduct.

Officers are: James R. Taylor, III, President; Bridgett Purdie, Vice-President; Cherise Williams, Recording Secretary; Lisa Gause, Corresponding Secretary, and Alexis Friedy, Treasurer. The advisor is Mr. Edwin Selby.

Drama Club

Composed of aspiring thespians, the drama club, in a workshop setting, reads and acts out scenes from plays. The president is Howard Washington. The co-advisors are Ms. Joan White, and Mr. Ed Cunningham.

Future Business Leaders Club

The F.B.L.C. provides interested students an opportunity to learn about the world of business, their local business community, and about themselves as possible future business leaders.

The advisor is Mr. Daniel Bender.

SENIORS

MY LAST GOODBYE TO THE CLASS OF '78

The easiest part has almost come
To an end and I must go on
But,
Really, am I ready to leave?
To leave my friends and this old Home behind me? To go to new Dimensions far greater than I can Possibly conceive?

Yes, I'm ready and I'm sure you
Are too — willing and eager to see
Just what this world has in store
For you and me.
Yolanda Morgan

There are several things we have to learn.
Our journey has just begun,
We are reaching for the world,
Trying not to leave anything undone.

There will be obstacles in our way
Some we'll have to ignore.
But we will keep on moving,
Even if we have to detour.

You see, the river has been crossed
But the ocean lies ahead,
We will find it a challenge,
Yet things remain unsaid.

Yes, the future is ahead of us
And we all must admit
Things have been a little hard
But baby, we made it.
Donna Benson

IT'S UP TO YOU

A diploma's very special-
It's like a golden key
That turns lock on any door
Marked "opportunity."

But one thing to remember
If you want to get inside-
It's up to you to give the nudge
That swings it open wide.

So use your key, but be aware
It's just a key at best
And remember that it's up to you
To go and do the rest.

Last Will And Testament

We, the senior class of 1978, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath and set in motion this last will and testament. We do not intend to discredit, embarrass, or create problems for anyone. Our sole intention is to pay tribute to the deserving seniors friends, underclassmen and teachers of University High School. We would like to begin by expressing our appreciation and gratitude for our past four years at University High School. We would also like to thank Rutgers University for the use of its facilities, and the college experience we received while we were there.

To Juanita Jordan, a pair of leather boots.
To Love Armstrong, a friend who will keep your secrets.
To Pheon Arvin, a muzzle.
To William Jones, a year's supply of Efferdent.
To Renee Arvin, a sister who won't always get you over.
To Lisa Mayers, What's up Zom- -Bie?
To Phyllis Barnes, Albert Calloway.
To Brenda Means, Chapstick - Lip Balm.
To Mymonah Miah, some panty shapers.
To Calvin McCargo, K₂ R Spot Remover.
To Tony Melvin, a pin to let the air out of your muscles.
To Eric Mobley, Much success in your future endeavors.
To Donna Benson, a career as Erica on "All My Children."
To Linda Connors, Have a good year and lead a good cheer.
To Bruce Dais, a lie somebody will believe and a ticket out of the Mafia.
To Phyllis Bradley, a horse.
To Donna Miller, a good straightening comb.
To Gail Carter, someone you won't get smart with.
To Albert Calloway, a heavy duty toothbrush.
To Kim Clark, a pair of shoes you can't turn over.
To Aaron Crossley, a chance to pick the woman you really want.

To Robin Mitchell, a better friend, you deserve it!
To Brian Brandon, all the wisdom, knowledge, and understanding you need and deserve.
To Annie Frazier, "If you can't be good, be careful."
To Kerhan Caldwell, a book on how to curb your diet.
To Joan Carruthers, "Phoney of the Year Award."
To Marcella Mitchell, accurate records.
To Cybelia Cartwright, a tu-tu you can handle.
To Yolanda Morgan, a scarf you can wear with every outfit.
To Valerie Pryor, a zipper to keep your mouth shut.
To Charlette Collins, Support Can Be Beautiful, but in your case-impossible.
To Leon De Vose, a new camera that works.
To Harry Edgerton, a position on Santa's sleigh as head reindeer.
To Kathy Flowers, the man you've always wanted, A.C.
To TaRelle Franklin, a five year meal ticket.
To Sam Hall, Now it's time to Move Ahead.
To Sheila Hayes, Walter Johnson.
To Vincent Johnson, a vacation for the working man.
To Kelly Riley, life-time membership to Elaine Powers.
To Craig Sharpe, a class you can be president of.
To Robin Young, a body to match the size of your head.
To James Taylor, a pik, better yet a rake.
To Sharon Thompson, "Follow your nose, Snoopy!"

To Heather Hyatte, "Mother of the Senior Class."
 To Debra Jefferies, "Big Bird Contest Winner."
 To Sheila Daniels, someone's man you won't chase after.
 To Barry Howell, maturity if you can handle it.
 To Walter Johnson, the "Jock of The Year Award."
 To Chanda Ware, a lily pad to jump on, Froggy.
 To De Neice Williams, a private place to carry on.
 To Derek Younge, a teacher that you can't debate with.
 To Hylia Williams, May all your fantasies come true.
 To Yvonne Grant, a little kindness never hurts.
 To Gloria Williams, The Gloria Williams Public Library
 To Loretta Williams, a cage in the zoo so that you can be tamed.
 To Pamela Williams, We've created a mon - - - ster.
 To Alvin Williams, a computer to bug out with.
 To Sonya Taylor, an outfit to compliment your eyes.
 To Miriam Ramos, "Ms. Congeniality."
 To Mark Parker, a seat on the U.S. Supreme Court.
 To Deanna Flewellen, a relationship between Donna
 Benson and yourself that will last more than one day.
 To Kim Sharpe, someone's business you don't know.
 To Maria Ramirez, a couple of F's to face reality.
 To Cynthia Brown, the look of a woman your age.
 To Lisa Dyes, all the freshmen boys.
 To Arleada Christian, a perfect paper in Mr. Charles' class.
 To Sharon Freeman, Thanks for proving to us there is always someone for everyone.
 To Mary Ruff, candidacy for sainthood.
 To Dawn Toler, an act we can't see through.
 To Antoinette Singleton, #1 in the class
 Luck Next Time.
 To Sharon Little, a dip in chocolate so you'll match your mate.
 To Mr. Fahmy, a pyramid.
 To Mr. Cunningham, a group of students that won't fall asleep on you.
 To Mr. Hammerman, a new pair of galoshes.
 To Ms. Sheldon, a cooperative Newsletter staff.
 To Mr. Charles, Clean up your act!
 To Mr. Brown, a bandfront that will win first prize.

Ms. Marinelle, for many hours preparing us for college entrance — THANKS!
 To Mr. Malanga, Look out below!
 To Mr. Ransome, Ms. Sutton.
 To Ms. Eckstein, some books to put in your library.
 To Dr. Schulman, We finally made it. I guess we told you!
 To Mr. Selby, a together recorder ensemble.
 To Mr. Carangelo, Ms. Marinello.
 To Mr. Cucolo, THANKS.
 To Mr. DeMiglio, your very own yearbook to write and edit.
 To Mr. Young, Much success with you new school.
 To the class of 1979, You're not grown yet, give it a little time, you'll get there.
 To the class of 1980, Maturity, wisdom, and much success in the years ahead, because you're going to need it!
 To the class of '81, This is your school, make something of it!
 If there is anyone who feels they have been discredited, embarassed, or now faced with a big problem, we leave one last word:

TOUGH!!!!

Words Of Wisdom From

What we've undergone the past four years is quite subtle in comparison to what lies ahead. We as a people can remake this world. Remember, "opportunity you grasp today, tomorrow it may not come your way!"

Yolanda M.

What you want to be is something you are now becoming.

Love A.

Now is the time for us to face the real challenge of life and the world that has to be won.

Cynthia B.

"Be a leader, not a follower." Deanna F.

Life only exists once, so go out into the world with your acquired knowledge and grasp your chosen career, develop it to your fullest potential and distribute it among the world.

Robin Y.

"To thine own self by true!"

"Our yesterdays follow us; they constitute our life and they give character and force and meaning to our present deeds."

Phyllis B.

"Whatever is worth doing at all, is worth doing well."

Valerie P.

May many hours of love and happiness follow us throughout our lives.

Kerhan C.

Hey! What more can I say, to a class that has class, I know we're going to pass. So be it. Peace! and may Allah bless you all.

Craig S.

"Life is too short and precious. Therefore, don't waste one moment. Do what you can today, because tomorrow may never come. Whatever you do, I wish you much success and happiness."

S. Daniels.

Life must go on.

"Genius is one per-cent inspiration and ninety-nine per-cent perspiration."

Marcella M.

"Be ashamed to die until you have won some victory for Humanity."

Renee A.

I wish each and every person in the graduating class of '78, the best of luck in all your future goals.

Gail C.

As-Salaam-Alaikum.

Saleem J.

Life is serious. Whatever you decide now will determine your future. Remember, nothing is as easy as it seems. Just be on guard. You'll be surprised how much you can learn by watching, listening and being in the right place at the right time.

Arleada C.

Instead of worrying about what everybody else is doing and has done, concentrate on what you can do and what you will do to better yourself and the world around you.

Albert C.

Each person is an individual, with an individual mind. Do not conform to the ways of others. Always remember: You are unique. There is no one exactly like you. Therefore, you are a special being capable of controlling your own life.

Pheon A.

Do unto others as you would have them do unto you; but always look out for #1.

Look to this day because tomorrow is a dream and yesterday was reality.

The Class Of '78

Looking beyond the silver lining is not enough, but going beyond it can be fulfilling.

Kathy F.

Don't let the storms of life get you down Remember the sun will shine and the rainbow full of colors will brighten up your life. Stand up for what you believe, even if nobody else agrees with you. Someday everybody will honor you for being yourself.

Miriam R.

I wish you success, and all your future desires to be granted.

Vincent J.

Love is a feeling you feel when you're about to feel a feeling you've never felt before. Good Luck, Class of 78.

Robin M.

For those who didn't know but were afraid to ask:

we seek	we grow
we discover	we make
we lose	we go
we recover	we please
we create	we give
we achieve	we will live

Khalif B.

Life's the most precious gift of all. The chance to experience the physical and spiritual things that life itself offers is the most precious treasure of all.

Kim S.

Ours is the challenge to try to do more-to contribute to our sisters and brothers-to take the lead and say, yes; forget the word "impossible". We, working together, can bring people together.

DeNeice W.

We've come a long way: and we still have a long way to go.

Walter J.

Reach out and touch the many opportunities life offers you. Develop all of the talents within you. Try to accomplish all the things that will make "you" a happy person.

Charlette C.

When the going gets tough, the tough get going.

Eric M.

Well, it's time to move on, people, on into the real world. As we continue to mold our lives, I hope we will never forget the memorable moments that we've shared together. I pray that we will all be blessed and truly pursue any ambition that will help both your society and you. Be strong and hold on . . . cause we're gonna make it.

Now that we are free to determine the outcome of our lives, rebuild the world, shape it, and love it for today and tomorrow.

Yvonne G.

This is only the beginning; what we've gone through so far can only be a small portion of what we have to face. Remember . . . the effort applied is the ointment to the failure and the foundation to success.

Leon D.

To look back on our past in the presence of the future allows us to remember the roads we've journeyed to accomplish our goals in life.

Sheila H.

Achieve your goals today because tomorrow is the farthest reality.

Aaron C.

Advisors Message

They say that the first time around is the hardest. It's impossible to imagine things getting anything but easier!

University High did not exist until September, 1977, and we did not move into our building until a month later. Advisors had to volunteer, staffs had to be recruited, a photographer and publisher contracted with, all at the proverbial last minute.

We were very fortunate in all respects. We are deeply appreciative to many — staff members Yolanda Morgan, Sheila Daniels, Maria Ramirez, and Sharon Thompson, along with a host of others, for the hours of meetings, writing, editing, rewriting, typing, and going slightly beserk with us as we faced deadlines. To the business staff which labored heroically for long hours on the booster campaign, raising well over $2,000, profound thanks, especially to Cynthia Brown, Susan Burnett, Kerhan Caldwell, and 20 more. To our colleagues, with particular appreciation to Paula Eckstein and Walter Genuario, many thanks for the assistance in fundraising, and patience with us as we made demands on their time and nerves, to get the work done in a quality way, and on time.

Special thanks to our director and deputy director, Willie Young and Joe Malanga, for their wisdom, guidance, understanding, and help in a hundred different ways.

We are particularly indebted to Mr. Lou Esposito, the yearbook publisher's representative, a pro in every sense of the word, without whom this book would have been impossible.

And finally, thanks to Mr. Louis Allen of Glamour Studios, for his fine photographs, and many trips to the school.

And, of course, thanks to the class of 1978, the raison d'être of the first PHOENIX.
